DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SIGINT Committee

SIGINT Requirements Validation and Evaluation Subcommittee

4 February 1988

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Randall M. Fort, Special Assistant to the Secretary (National Security), Department of the Treasury

SUBJECT: United States Customs Service Intelligence Requirements (Narcotics) [redacted] 25X1

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum, Subject as above, 19 January 1988

1. In response to your memorandum, the SIRVES Staff has reviewed the extant requirements in the National SIGINT Requirements List (NSRL) and has reaffirmed that the intelligence requirements of the US Customs Service that relate to narcotics are appropriately covered. [redacted] 25X1

2. As you are probably aware the SIGINT Requirements Validation and Evaluation Subcommittee (SIRVES) of the DCI SIGINT Committee is responsible for managing the National SIGINT Requirements System, the process through which all consumer needs for SIGINT are validated, prioritized, and levied on the US SIGINT System. Dr. Roger Pajak is the Department of the Treasury member of SIRVES and, we will continue to look to him for any additional requirements or changes your department may have. In the past, Dr. Pajak has been accompanied by a representative from the US Customs Service when SIRVES addressed narcotics requirements. [redacted] 25X1
